Maybe she needs to know she is worth pursuing. Be a creative dater. Go out of your way to make her feel extra special. You need to find God. Catholic girls are being told that their hearts should be so lost in God that you have to seek God in order to find her. I'm a 37 yo female and have not had much success on Catholic Match. I have never been married, no kids, but after school went into religious life and then discerned out before vows. I feel like this has set me back a little bit for dating and most of the fellows my age are understandably off the market.
