In the art classes, the middle school students captured the beauty of the sea in drawings and paintings, managing to create a summer atmosphere in their classrooms.

A fost acum ceva timp o focă. Ea se săturase că în fiecare zi la Polul Sud să vadă numai ghețari și pinguini. Își dorea ceva diferit, ceva nou. Așa că a pornit cu prietena ei cea mai bună în călătorie.

Prima oprire a fost în Africa de Sud unde a întâlnit o colonie de urși de mare. Când a întrebat cum e viața acolo, i s-a spus că e minunată, doar că în zonă erau foarte mulți rechini. Neștiind ce e acela un rechin, i s-a zis că rechinii sunt niște creaturi feroase, care li așteaptă în apa adâncă să-i înghită. Cuprinsă de frică, foca a plecat repede și a ajuns în Sudul continentului sud american. Aici era tot frig și era o altă amenințare. De data asta știa de ea, orca. În concluzie nu era bine nici aici. În drum spre Europa, a ajuns în Marea Mediterană, dar aici nu erau focl (în afară de prietena ei), nu era bine. După ce a trecut Marea Marmara (prea mică), a ajuns în Marea Neagră. Aici era totul perfect. Nu erau amenințări și avea mâncare din belșug. Așa că a chemat mai multe focl în marea minunată. Astfel a apărut foca de Marea Neagră.

The Black Sea, a blue sea

With boundless beauty

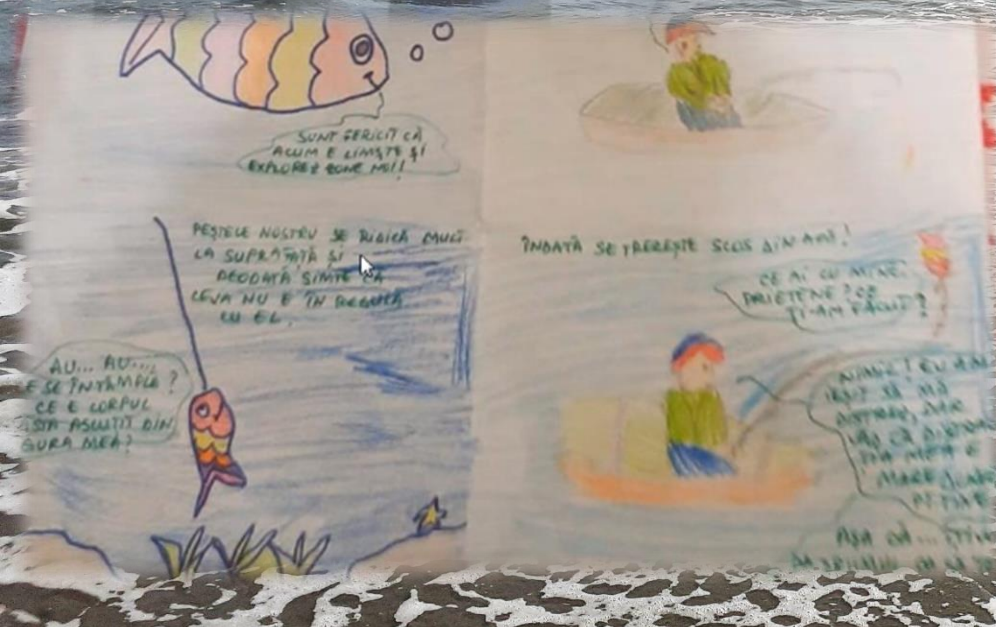

You've been carrying tireless for so many years

Mysterious waves on the sand.

They gently carried in their salt water,

Song after song, your wonderful story.

In primary classrooms, students used their creativity by making comics or by composing lyrics, stories, and legends about the SEA.

MĂRȚIȘORUL - A TRADITIONAL SPRING CUSTOM IN ROMANIA

Erasmus+

Students made Romanian traditional symbols of spring, using marine elements, which they gave to the teachers and their mothers.
