Culturally Responsive Sustaining Education (CRSE) Primer for Teachers, Counselors of ELLs and Paraprofessionals (All Grades)

Tuesday, February 15, 2022 / 2PM-5PM

Pamela D’Andrea Martínez and María V. Diaz
Resource Specialists, NYS Language RBERN at NYU

AUDIENCE
Teachers of ELLs including: ENL/ESL Teachers, Bilingual Teachers, Dual Language Teachers Content-Area Teachers, Special Education Teachers, Literacy Coaches, Counselors and Paraprofessionals

DESCRIPTION
● Examine New York State’s CRSE Framework to create student-centered environments
● Discuss the role of the teacher in promoting practices of the CRSE framework to benefit ELLs
● Discuss how to consider language, culture, and identity as important factors in getting to know students and ourselves
● Practice responding to what we know about students by taking traditional instruction and making it CRSE in order for students to be valued for who they are
● Learn about developing and modifying lessons / curriculum that affirm students’ identities such as race, language, and culture and identify the individual and collective ways they learn

REGISTER HERE

The New York State Statewide Language RBERN is an approved Sponsor of Continuing Teacher & Leader Education (CTLE) pursuant to Section 80-6 of the Regulations of the NYS Commissioner of Education.